

PSYCHE SCRAPER

Embark on a daring virtual mission on one of the largest asteroids in the Solar System! Venture across the surface of this strange world to gather resources and learn about this magnificent relic of our Solar System's past to help answer questions about our own world's origin.

The name of the game is like Score Attack: you have three minutes to get the best score by collecting pickups of minerals and scientific data. Run and jump your way across Psyche to pickup as much as you can and beat the high score.
